ENBASports Edmonton Native Ball Association presents:

“Reclaiming Our Youth”

July 17 - 22, 2011 · Edmonton, AB

The summer of 2011 will bring together Indigenous people from across North America to Edmonton, Leduc and Enoch Cree Nation for 6 days of Sports, Education, and Cultural Awakening. The vision of our Games is to recognize the value and potential of Indigenous culture, and our young people. We will be “Reclaiming our Youth” through the wisdom of our own culture, and the amazing power of sport and personal achievement. The week will feature Indigenous Arts, Speaking, Music, Dance, and other Cultural Gatherings affirming the theme, “Reclaiming our Youth.”

The Games will include the following sports and locations:

- Canoeing (Telford Lake, Leduc)
- Basketball (Location TBA)
- Ball Hockey (Coronation Arena, Edmonton)
- Track and Field (Coronation Bowl Field, Edmonton)
- Golf (Indian Lakes Golf Course, Enoch Cree Nation)
- Archery (Cultural Grounds, Enoch Cree Nation)
- Volleyball (Location TBA)
- Soccer (Coronation Park, Edmonton)
- Softball (Coronation Park, Edmonton)

Age divisions based on year of birth are as follows:

- Juvenile: January 1, 1992 – December 31, 1994
- Midget: January 1, 1995 – December 31, 1996
- Bantam: January 1, 1997 – December 31, 1999

Registration Fees:

- $100 per athlete (does not include food or accommodation)

Note: The games committee will aggressively be fund-raising to assist athletes, teams or communities to meet their food/accommodation needs.
