

2011 Aboriginal Health Care Conference

Aboriginal Health Care: Governance and Leadership October 27 & 28, 2011

Victoria Inn Hotel & Convention Centre • Thunder Bay, ON

The need to continuously improve the Canadian health care system is a constant, specifically in Aboriginal health care. This year's conference will examine how Aboriginal health care leaders and partners are working together to sustain and honour traditional values and work within an integrated model. Discover the quality and coordination of care in Aboriginal health, while creating a strategic vision for long term success.

CONFERENCE HIGHLIGHTS WILL INCLUDE:

- Learn about an Effective Dual Governance Model from one of the first health care facilities in Canada owned and operated by First Nation governments
- Learn how to strengthen, improve and create health governance (i.e., regional boards or local health committees)
- Discover the Meno Ya Win Centre of Excellence Model, and learn about Leadership in Programs and Partnerships
- Effective Cross Cultural Training and Patient Safety

Don't miss out on finding new ways of working together and planning and delivering health care services in the Aboriginal community!

The conference will also feature Health Care Exhibitor Booths, showcasing innovation and best practices in Aboriginal Health.
