Aboriginal Business Series:

Natural Resource Partnerships and Procurement

December 5, 2011

The Sutton Place Hotel, Edmonton

The natural resource sector has several business contracting needs providing the majority of opportunity for Aboriginal entrepreneurs and community owned development corporations. The opportunities are in transportation, construction, food and facilities outsourcing and exploration. Aboriginal community strengths have contributed to business growth and successful startups in these four areas. Experts and leading companies will explain where the opportunities are and how to successfully realize them. Producers in the natural resource sector will explain their procurement requirements and initiatives to grow business with Aboriginal suppliers and partners.

Topics Include:

- Economic Outlook
- Government's Support for Aboriginal Business in the Natural Resources Sector
- Food and Facility Outsourcing
- Roads, Air, Water
- Construction
