Aboriginal Workplace Learning Circle

March 6-29, 2012

2 half day sessions week
(Tuesdays & Thursdays 1pm - 4pm)

Aboriginal Futures Career & Training Centre
#200-6011 1A Street S.W. Calgary, AB

The Aboriginal Workplace Learning Circle uses a holistic approach to learning. This approach incorporates indigenous perspectives into modern day workplaces. The Aboriginal Workplace Learning Circle is being provided to Aboriginal people in Calgary through a special partnership with the Further Education Society, Community Futures Treaty 7, and the Aboriginal Futures Career and Training Centre.

- Introducing Essential Skills that people need for learning, work and life
- Medicine Wheel teachings to create balance in your home, and work life
- Discover and overcome your barriers to successful employment
- Create a personal plan to succeed in the workplace and at home
- Understanding workplace diversity, culture and etiquette
- Strengthening positive communication skills verbal and non verbal
- Discover your learning styles to enhance your personal learning potential

Successful completion of our Aboriginal Workplace Learning Circle means you can fast forward into our JOB CLUB.

JOB CLUB is a group assisted program for obtaining employment. You will gain skills to help you find the most suitable job in the shortest amount of time! Next Job Club is April 2 to April 20, 2012, Monday to Friday, 9am to 3pm.
