THE 2012 DREAMCATCHER AWARDS Call for Nominations

Purpose of the awards

These awards will be presented to a community organizer who has worked with either youth or community groups at the grassroots level and have not received the level of recognition deserving their work. The community organizer will have been involved in organizing sports or recreation activities; arts and cultural activities; education or health related activities.

Our awards are given in the categories of:

- Arts and Entertainment
- Community and Culture
- Health and Medicine
- Education
- Human Rights
- Sports
- Lifetime Achievement Award

The Lifetime Achievement Award is awarded by the Dreamcatcher Charitable Foundation to a community member who, during their lifetime, has made significant fundamental contributions to their Aboriginal Community and Aboriginal People.

Who is eligible?

Any Aboriginal person in Canada.

How do we nominate someone?

Nominating sponsor can be an individual, a community group or a recognized entity such as a Band Council, Aboriginal business, etc.

The nominators should provide a letter of no more than three pages with the following details:

- One paragraph describing the sponsoring nominator
- Name and location of the individual being nominated
- A description of the persons' community involvement or how they have excelled in their field
- What this persons' involvement has meant to the community
- A short description of the successes achieved

When will the awards be presented?

The awards will be presented at the 8th Annual Dreamcatcher Gala on October 11, 2012 at the Hamilton Convention Center.

The selection process

The successful candidates will be selected by the Board of Directors of the Dreamcatcher Foundation

When do the nominations have to be submitted?
