The Assembly of Manitoba Chiefs (AMC) 2012 Housing and Infrastructure Conference will provide a foundation for our communities to build on by sharing resources, opportunities, and best practices.

- Grass Roots Policy Development
- Community Driven Economic Development
- Sustainable Housing through Lean Homebuilding
- Celebrated Success by Sharing Best Practices
- Explore Opportunities at our Trade Show
- Connecting Communities with the Experts
- Honor Community Achievement at the Awards Ceremony

CALL FOR ABSTRACT SUBMISSIONS!

AMC Housing Conference Committee invites First Nation Communities to submit abstracts on their projects and ideas in the following four areas:

1. Policy Development – Housing Authorities, Governance Structure
2. Community Planning on Housing – First Nations Land Tenure, Housing Inventory Planning
3. Economic Development in Housing – Geo-Thermal Systems, Home Ownership, Market Base Housing, Resource Equity
4. Housing and Health – Indoor Air Quality, Tuberculosis, Mould

AWARDS CEREMONY

The Awards Ceremony, held Wednesday, November 21, 2012, will be used as a way to bring recognition to the achievements in the four policy areas in Manitoba First Nations have made. The Assembly of Manitoba Chiefs believes that it is important to bring recognition to the communities, in order to continue to build capacity and encourage good practices.
