REGISTRATION FORM

The Conference title and information sharing was coordinated by the seniors at the Aboriginal Senior Resource Centre. It is a conference where information will be shared on understanding the different forms of Elder abuse. This conference will be very unique, in that, the conference information sharing will be explored through the utilizing of the Medicine Wheel – as an understanding tool to help heal our community. Therefore, you will have your choice of registering for your seminars through each direction. This will assist you to focus on understanding Elder abuse according to the specific teachings offered from the Medicine wheel perspectives.

Please select which seminar area you will attend:

You have the option to select one direction for the morning and another direction in the afternoon seminar. Each direction will explore “What is Abuse, and in the second part, this direction will help define the forms of abuse.
