Second International Indigenous Voices in Social Work Conference

*Indigenous Knowledges:
Resurgence, Implementation and Collaboration* • www.iivsw2013.com

Attend the "Second International Indigenous Voices in Social Work Conference", July 8-11, 2013, and be engaged by world class speakers, presentations and unique Indigenous insights from around the globe. Keynote speakers and presenters include Ovide Mercredi, Dr. Tom Calma, Sylvia McAdam and Leanne Simpson who will deliver informative and inspiring insights into the health and well-being of Indigenous peoples world wide. And visit Winnipeg - the "cultural cradle" of Canada! Hosted by the University of Manitoba Faculty of Social Work, at the historic Fort Garry Hotel & Conference Centre in downtown Winnipeg, we have also put together community site tours, indigenous trade show & marketplace, workshops and gala evening dinner with entertainment.

Key Themes:

Resurgence - addressing and supporting the resurgence of Indigenous Knowledges and how they inform social work

Implementation - how Indigenous Knowledges have been implemented in social policies, organizations, programs, practices, education, research and social action

Collaboration - collaboration between peoples, organizations, Indigenous peoples and social work generally

Registration: Space is limited! Fees include light breakfasts, lunches, refreshments, evening receptions, welcome dinner, community site visits, workshops, conference kit and access to tradeshow exhibitors.
