Aboriginal Entrepreneurs conference AND tradeshow 2013

November 4-6, 2013
Hilton Lac-Leamy | Gatineau, QC

Accelerating Change Through Business Partnerships

Aboriginal business is one of the fastest growing economic sectors in Canada today and attending AECTS is your chance to showcase your products, strengths and business vision. Celebrate your role as one of the rising stars of the Canadian economy, there's business out there!

The Aboriginal Entrepreneurs Conference and Tradeshow (AECTS) 2013 is an opportunity for players in the Aboriginal community to connect with major developers from the private sector and government. Entrepreneurs at this three-day event, with 400 participants and over 40 exhibitors, will learn how to fully participate in the many lucrative projects being initiated in Canada.

- Business to business meetings
- Talent for successful businesses - the human resource challenge
- Learn from showcase projects and business leaders
- Network with mainstream and Aboriginal businesses, seal the deal
- Learn how to grow your business in a major resource project environment
