CCAB is pleased to invite you to a series of special Information Sessions on the CAB Program. This session will be held in Ottawa, Ontario on April 22, 2014 at The Westin Ottawa in the Quebec Room.

Our recently launched ground breaking online Aboriginal business directory and procurement tool is designed to create more bid opportunities for Aboriginal businesses looking to partner with industry locally, regionally and nationally.

This one-hour afternoon session will provide an opportunity to learn how the CAB Program plans to increase the number of business interactions between Aboriginal and non-Aboriginal Businesses in Canada.

We strongly recommend you take advantage of this new and exciting business building opportunity. Come and network with peers and prospective clients at this FREE event where Aboriginal business comes to grow.

What does it mean to be CAB Certified?

CAB ensures Aboriginal businesses are easily identified and recognized by industry, government and other organizations that want to do business with Aboriginal communities and people. CAB is designed to not only provide increased private sector procurement opportunities but also to help ensure that value extends to the community level. Certified businesses can also use the designated CAB logo to provide assurance to companies looking to do business with Aboriginal people.
