INDIGENOUS LEADERSHIP AND MANAGEMENT

Build Success in your Community

For over 41 years, Indigenous Leadership and Management has provided relevant and impactful leadership development programs designed for community leaders to lead change and achieve results. With highly experienced faculty who are experts in their fields, our programs can be tailored to meet the specific needs of your community and delivered in collaboration with you to develop the skills and tools necessary for achieving your goals.

Some of our most in-demand programs can be customized for your community or organization:

- Negotiation skills training
- Board governance development
- Strategic planning
- Leadership and management development

"Our goal was to arm our leaders with knowledge and training to tackle the challenges we face. Our belief is that we are only as good as our people – so investing in our leaders made good sense."

Geraldine Bear, Councillor
