Get in on the ground floor for a career in construction.

Apply today for the NEW 4-week Construction Start Program.

Demand is high and employers are lined up and ready to hire WBF grads. You could start earning good money working in construction as a concrete finisher, drywall taper/mudder, demolition worker, carpenter, safety watch or flag person. Once you've got your foot in the door, you can start thinking about which trade you want to go for.

Program starts May 8, 2015

Are you wired for a career in electrical?

Sign up for the 4-week Electrical Basics Program.

The Electrical Basics program offers tuition-paid spots for up to 12 women, a minimum of 4 of which are reserved exclusively for Aboriginal women.

Following the program, a large multi-national company will be offering 4 Aboriginal students registered apprenticeships and employment for the duration of their apprenticeship; one in each of the following communities: Whitecourt, Swan Hills, Valleyview and Drayton Valley.

Program starts June 1, 2015

Paid tuition is available to qualified applicants for both programs.
