First Nations Administrators Education Conference and Tradeshow

May 6-8, 2015 | Victoria Inn Hotel & Conference Centre | Winnipeg, MB

Where Eagles Gather - First Nations Education Leadership Summit

The Manitoba First Nations Education Resource Centre (MFNERC) is proud to host the 11th Annual Western Canada First Nations Administrators Education Conference in conjunction with its annual Lighting the Fire Conference. The joint conference will be held May 6-8, 2015, at the Victoria Inn and Convention Centre in Winnipeg, Manitoba.

As our First Nations school systems have grown through the 21st century, a generation of dynamic education leaders have emerged, influenced by those visionaries who sought to push Indigenous education rights and self-determination forward.

Conference Highlights Include

- Showcase perspectives from educational and political leadership
- Keynote speaker Joseph Boyden and Manitoba First Nations Chiefs Panel
- Innovative education plans and strategies that have been successful in First Nation communities and schools
- Workshops and presentations that focus on ground-breaking initiatives, curricula, and viewpoints to support and inspire all stakeholders in First Nations education
- Lighting the Fire Banquet with Manitoba's finest entertainment
